Over 30 years of experience litigating complex business disputes in federal and state courts at trial and appellate levels and in ADR forums throughout the country. In addition to many general business cases, practice has included litigation and consultation on a broad range of intellectual property matters involving copyrights, trademarks, trade dress, trade secrets and publicity/privacy rights. These matters usually concerned either infringement issues or disputes over the contracts that licensed, sold or otherwise dealt with intellectual property. Clients engaged in many different entertainment, communications and consumer products business segments, such as music publishing, records, motion picture (feature film) production and distribution, home video, television program production and distribution (primarily public television documentaries), computer software and the Internet. Furthermore, the most recent ten years of practice has also encompassed many cases arising out of advertising, marketing and promotion matters, embracing contract disputes (such as, for example, an advertiser's termination of its ad agency or a falling out between joint marketing partners) and litigation between competitors over claims of false and misleading comparative advertising. Also served as Chair and long-term board member of non-profit organization in Harlem, New York that provided community and education to formerly homeless people, as well as handling miscellaneous litigation for the organization.

I am a member of the New York State Bar Association, actively participating on its ADR Committee

IV. General pertinent experience:

I served in 2001-02 as a judicially-appointed mediator/referee in a complex attorney's fees dispute pending in the Ramsey County District Court, State of Minnesota.

I am serving on the panel of mediators established by the Second Circuit Court of Appeals to handle pre-argument conferences in immigration appeals. This service began in September 2004, and I have mediated thirty conferences to date.

I have represented parties in five mediations of complex business cases.

V. Mediation training:

Attended Advanced Negotiation and Mediation Skills Training Program sponsored jointly by NASD and United States Bankruptcy Courts for the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York and presented by Abrams Mediation & Negotiation, Inc. I participated fully in all 24 hours of exercises and received Certificate on March 9, 2005.

VI. Pertinent bankruptcy training:

I have handled a variety of commercial business cases over the years in which bankruptcy issues were significantly involved. In these cases, I represented IP licensors, entities with claims against a party in bankruptcy, entities against whom a bankruptcy estate had claims, and various other situations.

VII. General pertinent business or legal experience:

I currently serve on the American Arbitration Association's commercial panel of neutrals and have also represented clients in many AAA proceedings and other ADR forums. My work with the AAA has been enhanced through alternative dispute resolution training at various AAA conferences and workshops.
